Indonesian Journal of Applied Linguistics (IJAL)

The aim of this Journal is to promote a principled approach to research on language and language-related concerns by encouraging enquiry into relationship between theoretical and practical studies. The Journal welcomes contributions in such areas of current analysis as First and Second Language Teaching and Learning, Language in Education, Language Planning, Language Testing, Curriculum Design and Development, Multilingualism and Multilingual Education, Discourse Analysis, Translation, Clinical Linguistics, and Forensic Linguistics

IJAL was first published by The Language Center of Indonesia University of Education in 2011 under the title of Conaplin: Indonesian Journal of Applied Linguistics. Since 2012, the title has been changed to Indonesian Journal of Applied Linguistics and is published in cooperation with TEFLIN. IJAL has now been indexed in Scopus.
