

NAME: Nurandini Oktakusuma

DATE:

TEST 1

You should spend 20 minutes to do this test

Capital punishment should be abolished (not only) because it deprives another person of life (but also) it does not stop crime.

1. Women generally live longer than men for two main reasons: they tend to take better care of their health, and they have better resistance to stress.
2. Drug and alcohol abuse among teenagers can be traced to the following lack of parental supervision, lax enforcement of drug laws, and the social and psychological problems of teenagers themselves.
3. An architect should be both an artist and an engineer.

Create an essay from those topics above consisting of 200 words maximum!

→ Drug and alcohol abuse among teenagers can be traced to the following lack of parental supervision, lax enforcement of drug laws, and the social and psychological problems of teenagers themselves. Many teens try alcohol, or drugs. Some teens try these substances only a few times and stop. Others can't control their urges or cravings for them. Teens may try a number of substances including cigarettes, alcohol and etc. Teens use alcohol more than any other substances. Why do teens ~~substance~~ abuse drugs and alcohol? Teens may use a substance for many reasons. They may do it because they want to fit in with friends or certain groups.

Coherence and cohesion is not interrelated one another. Then, so many redundancies are found.